

Please do not stop the do not call list! It has been one of very few improvements to our personal lives that have taken place. Our dinner hours with our families is now our own, instead of the telemarketers interrupting.....Please keep it in place!